The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.

The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.

Newfield requires that address changes/corrections be submitted in writing. You can find the Notice of Change of Address form by logging into our owner relations website <<https://secure.pds-austin.com/newfield/login.asp>> If you prefer to have the form mailed to you, please email owner-relations@newfield.com <<mailto:owner-relations@newfield.com>> or call 281-210-3348 or toll free 866-415-4470 with your request.

The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.

The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.

You can find the Notice of Change of Address form by logging into our owner relations website <<https://secure.pds-austin.com/newfield/login.asp>> If you prefer to have the form mailed to you, please email owner-relations@newfield.com <<mailto:owner-relations@newfield.com>> or call 281-210-3348 or toll free 866-415-4470 with your request

The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.

Newfield requires that address changes/corrections be submitted in writing. You can find the Notice of Change of Address form by logging into our owner relations website <<https://secure.pds-austin.com/newfield/login.asp>>. If you prefer to have the form mailed to you, please email owner-relations@newfield.com <<mailto:owner-relations@newfield.com>> or call 281-210-3348 or toll free 866-415-4470 with your request.

The calculation of royalty and revenue payments for Newfield's share of production is based upon the revenues received by Newfield for the sale of the oil, gas or other products to non-affiliated purchasers or processors. The payment reflected in the check may show certain deductions under the column titled "Deducts" for a proportionate share of costs paid by Newfield to non-affiliated third parties who provide certain services with respect to the production that was sold. Where Newfield is the Operator of the well, this statement may also depict information with respect to production sold by other oil and gas producer(s) who have remitted their royalty share of proceeds to Newfield for distribution. As to those proceeds, the information shown in this statement is based upon the information Newfield received from the other producer(s) or their purchaser(s). Federal and State taxes have been deducted as required.
